

February 2018 Quiz Questions

Page 1

All About Music

Bells are part of which musical family?

What are chimes?

In which location was the first bell believed to have been used?

How much does the largest bell in the world weigh?

Where is the Liberty Bell located?

If a ton is 2,000 pounds and the World Peace Bell weighs 66,000 pounds, how many tons is that?

Cookin' Fun

Which is smaller: 1 tablespoon of sugar or 1 teaspoon of salt?

What is rule number 5?

Which recipe requires baking?

High School Corner

How much of a scholarship needs to be repaid?

What are the 4 main tips recommended in the article?

Science Fun

The Great Barrier Reef is located off the coast of what continent?

There are three main types of reef that comprise the Great Barrier Reef. What are they?

A patch reef is also known as what type of reef?

What makes the limestone that builds the reef?

What type of fish is shown in the upper photo?

Math Adventures

What color should the $9 + 6$ section be colored in the heart?

What mathematical sign ($<$, $=$, $>$) should you use when comparing 32 and 27?

February 2018 Quiz Questions

Page 2

Middle Ground

What does the acronym STEM stand for?

What do STEM subjects focus on?

Microbiologists could be found in many of the careers listed at the bottom of the page. It is only listed in one category. In what category is it listed?

Sports and Fitness

In which country will the Winter Olympics be held this year?

The word “debut” (pronounced ‘day-byou’) means first appearance.

How many teams will make their ‘debut’ at the Winter Olympics this year?

What is the mascot for the Winter Olympics this year?

There are 5 rings in the Olympic symbol. What do they represent?

Spotlight on Health

What is the best way to stay warm in the cold?

What is ‘frostbite’?

Travel with Us

On which continent is Sweden?

Sweden is known as the “Land of the Midnight Sun”. What does that mean?

What is the capital of Sweden?

Sweden has a welfare system that gives them access to publicly financed health care, child care, schools, elder care, help for the unemployed, and at least 5 weeks paid vacation per year. What do they call this?

Visit the Wildside!

On what continent are love birds found?

Are love birds herbivores, omnivores or carnivores?

What does ‘diurnal’ mean?